Title of Project: An Exploration of Themes in Queer Literature

Date: March 27, 2018

Abstract (maximum of 300 words)

My creative research project will focus on themes found in queer literature published from the early twentieth century to the present twenty-first century, and from these themes, I will craft a portfolio that utilizes the resources from the Juniper Summer Writing Institute. These resources include workshops and open mic readings. The opportunity to attend this institute will be beneficial in my growth as a writer. To begin the project, I will read five novels that fall under

IV. Faculty Recommendation

Student Instructions:

Have your faculty mentor/collaborator write a letter of recommendation to the Committee.

Instructions for Faculty Mentor or Collaborator:

In your letter of recommendation, be sure to address the following:

- Explain the value of this collaborative project.
- Explain how this is a discipline-appropriate example of scholarship.
- Will the student be able to accomplish it in the proposed timeline? Please note: Stipends are paid after the Final Report of the project is submitted.

Has the student accurately described your role as faculty mentor or faculty collaborator in Part II, Item 4 of the project proposal?
Are the budget needs accurately described by the student? Why or why not?
Explain how the dissemination of this project is appropriate to this discipline.
Collaborating faculty members are entitled to a stipend proportional to the extent of project involvement

- This stipend is considered separately from the proposed project budget, and should not be included on the project budget form. The stipend is protected in this way to recognize the importance of faculty involvement.
- Please indicate your proposed Faculty Stipend: $250, $500, or $1000, along with amount justification. The typical stipend is $500.

Please send letter of recommendation by e-mail to the Student-Faculty Collaborative Research Fund Committee in care of:
