taken. Reported concerns and actions taken will be recorded in the meeting minutes, reported to the IO, and maintained on file.

5) Make written recommendations to the Institutional Official regarding any aspect of the Nebraska Wesleyan University's animal program, facilities, or personnel training. The procedures for making recommendations to the Institutional Official are as follows:

- a. During the semiannual meetings or between if necessary, the IACUC will submit a written report to the IO outlining any recommendations for or revisions to the animal care and use program.

[REDACTED]

- d. The IO will receive a copy of the IACUC meeting minutes that records all decisions regarding protocol review and activities.

9) Conduct continuing review of each previously approved, ongoing activity covered

- b. Following recommendations in the Guide, the training program requirements for personnel are based on the type of animal, degree of exposure, and required animal care and use procedures. This would include any specialized training required for handling hazardous materials.

c. Proper personal hygiene and care of hands, face and hair. [REDACTED]
